Sunday 4.30pm Mass since we were given permission by the Scottish Government last month to increase the numbers permitted into our church building, there has been a significant increase in the numbers at the Vigil Mass, slight increase at the three Sunday morning Masses, but sadly a decline at the 4.30pm Mass (about thirty people attending) It is felt that the time has come to stop the 4.30pm Mass and the final one will be on 27th June. Can all those who attend this Mass book (07570726268) a place at one of the other Masses, please? A word of thanks to those who have kindly done stewarding duty, music ministry; readers and those who wiped down.

Saints - Pictures and stories of the saints that the children chose for their confirmation is on display in front of Our lady's altar. Please feel to read them.

We'll use a program called Echoes, developed by the Maryvale Institute, over two Saturday mornings on the 26th June and the 3rd of July from 10am till lunchtime. Freedom to Pray City of Edinburgh Council is petitioning COSLA, the Scottish local authorities' organisation, in favour of 'buffer zones' at all Scottish abortion facilities. It means peaceful pro-life vigils, a lifeline to vulnerable women considering abortion, are under threat. To protect the freedom to pray you can sign the SPUC (Society for the Protection of Unborn Children) online petition: <https://citizengo.org/en-gb/201800-protect-freedom-pray-scotland>

Father's Day We wish all fathers, grandfathers and all those who have fatherly roles a blessed day.

School Holiday once more our schools come to an end of another scholastic year! We extend our warmest congratulations to all the work accomplished by our students and staff, especially during a difficult year with all the closures and restrictions etc. Rest and recreation are good for the soul! We all need a break or we become dull. In the bible, the Sabbath was to provide a boundary, to prevent life from becoming just work and more work. Recreation means to recreate oneself again. It is about recreating that space in our lives where we realise that there is more to life than doing, getting and having. Sometimes we have to force ourselves to finding that space. We don't have to travel anywhere to find it and it doesn't have to cost. So, whatever you do, come back refreshed...if not for your sake, then ours!

Child Anxiety Webinar Parents can receive practical and prayerful advice on helping their child deal with anxiety brought on by the pandemic in a free, one hour Webinar at 7:30pm tomorrow, Monday (21 June) led by Catholic educator Angela Dodds. To register visit bit.ly/AnxietyZoom

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Job 38:1,8-11
From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said: Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

Second reading 2 Corinthians 5:14-17 The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

Gospel Mark 4:35-41
With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'
