Forty Hours' Schedule starts at 7.30am on Friday. The early start allows us to have the full 40 Hours' of Adoration. We will end on Sunday, 13th June at 11.30am. This will then let parishioners attend the Corpus Christi Procession in Falkirk at 2.30pm - a chance to be with the Archbishop and give a wonderful public witness to our faith in Jesus' real presence in the Eucharist.

Forty Hours' Time Slots 'Could you not watch one hour with me?': Spend time with Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament over this period. It is a great blessing for our parish and families. Kindly add your name to a specific time so that there is always someone present with Our Lord.

40 Hours' Votive Candles there will be the opportunity to have a candle lit on the sanctuary for your own intentions. For example, a sick relative, a deceased family member or a special intention. Every candle will be labeled and burn for the 40 Hours. If you would like a candle, please complete the sheet at the back of the church and place £3.00 per candle in the piety stall.

The Forty Hours' Adoration the custom of having the Blessed Sacrament exposed for forty hours is to commemorate the forty hours that we lost His presence when He died and was placed for forty hours in the tomb. Millions have found that spending time in silence before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament becomes a life-changing experience. Consider giving some time to come and pray before Jesus exposed on the altar during the 40 Hours' Exposition in our parish.

Next Sunday Corpus Christi Procession minibus leaves at 1.30pm and returns at 4pm. There is a sign-up sheet for the minibus at the back.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY SACRED SCRIPTURE

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father,
and the Only Begotten Son of God,
and also, the Holy Spirit,
for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading Exodus 34:4-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Responsorial Psalm Daniel 3

R. To you glory and praise for evermore.

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.

R. To you glory and praise...

Blest your glorious holy name.

R. To you glory and praise...

You are blest in the temple of your glory.

R. To you glory and praise...

You are blest on the throne of your kingdom.

R. To you glory and praise...

You are blest who gaze into the depths.

R. To you glory and praise...

You are blest in the firmament of heaven.

R. To you glory and praise...

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

the God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

Gospel John 3:16-18

'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life.

For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved.

No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.
